Introduction:

The Anwarul Uloom College of Business Management hosted a comprehensive four-day GRE/TOEFL training program from February 9 to 12, 2021. The program was led by seasoned educators, Mr. Abdul Bakhi and Mr. Abdul Samee, who are renowned for their expertise in standardized test preparation. This intensive training initiative aimed to equip participants with the essential skills, strategies, and confidence required to excel in the GRE and TOEFL examinations.

Program Objectives:

To provide participants with an in-depth understanding of the GRE and TOEFL test structures, question types, and scoring mechanisms.

To enhance participants' verbal reasoning, quantitative reasoning, and analytical writing skills through rigorous practice and expert guidance.

To foster participants' linguistic proficiency, focusing on English grammar, vocabulary, and language usage for the TOEFL exam.

To familiarize participants with effective time management techniques and test-taking strategies to optimize their performance on exam day.

To create a supportive and interactive learning environment, allowing participants to engage in collaborative learning and share insights.

Program Outcome:

By the conclusion of the four-day GRE/TOEFL training program, participants will be able to:

Apply strategic approaches to solve GRE quantitative and verbal reasoning questions efficiently.

Construct well-organized and persuasive essays for the GRE analytical writing section.

Demonstrate an advanced understanding of English language nuances, vocabulary, and grammar for success in the TOEFL exam.

Implement time management techniques and strategic methods to tackle different question types in both exams.

Evaluate their progress, identify areas for improvement, and create a personalized study plan for continued preparation.

Program Report:

The four-day GRE/TOEFL training program, conducted by Mr. Abdul Bakhi and Mr. Abdul Samee at Anwarul Uloom College of Business Management from February 9 to 12, 2021, proved to be an impactful and engaging experience for all participants. The program commenced with a comprehensive introduction to the GRE and TOEFL exams, setting the stage for a well-structured and intensive learning journey.

Throughout the program, participants were exposed to a diverse range of strategies, practice exercises, and interactive discussions led by the expert facilitators. Mr. Abdul Bakhi and Mr. Abdul Samee's expertise and engaging teaching methodologies fostered a dynamic learning environment, enabling participants to grasp complex concepts and apply strategic approaches to question-solving effectively.

The program's culmination on the final day with full-length mock tests was a defining moment. Participants underwent a simulation of real exam conditions, enabling them to apply the strategies and skills acquired during the program. The subsequent analysis and feedback sessions were instrumental in helping participants gauge their progress and identify areas for further enhancement.
